

GOING TO SEE NARNIA

This page will show you how to present The Chronicles of Narnia: The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe to your church, school, or group, and get them to see the film on or before the opening weekend of December 9, 2005.

WALT DISNEY PICTURES and WALDEN MEDIA

THE CHRONICLES OF NARNIA
 THE LION, THE WITCH AND THE WARDROBE
 IN THEATRES DECEMBER 9

Church Leaders

1. Make going to see Narnia an all-church event. If you have a large congregation or would like to conduct an extensive outreach event, you may purchase seats for an entire theater by contacting Disney Group Sales at 1-866-333-0045. They will help you find a theater near you and work with you to secure the buy out.
2. You may also purchase a block of tickets to a single showing of the film. Consider buying extra tickets or setting aside tickets for a "Bring a Friend" event. Contact Disney Group Sales at 1-866-333-0045 and they will provide you with the correct contact information for a theater near you.
3. Tickets may also be purchased in the form of a ticket debit card. These debit cards are ideal to use as a giveaway, for a donation or bundled with a Narnia book or product. Tickets may be purchased through InService America at www.NarniaResources.com/ticketvouchers.

4. Invite your congregation to be among the first to see The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe at one of a series of special showings being held around the country on Thursday, December 8, 2005. These will be held at thousands of theaters, but the tickets are sure to be among the first to sell out. These very special sneak preview tickets may be purchased at www.NarniaResources.com/barna. Minimum purchase is 50 tickets.

Youth Leaders

After showing the trailer to parents and gaining their support for this opportunity, consider:

1. How exciting it would be to fill a whole theater with teenagers from your group and their friends! Consider connecting with other local youth leaders or local youth programs to buy out a theater. Contact Disney Group Sales at 1-866-333-0045. They will help you find a theater near you and work with you to secure the buy out.
2. If you want to go opening weekend, ensure you have tickets in advance by contacting the Disney Group Sales line at 1-866-333-0045. They will provide you with the correct contact information for a theater near you. Create an outreach event by setting aside a "Bring a Friend" ticket for each member of your group.
3. If you'd like to host a Narnia Youth Event after seeing the film, consider buying matinee tickets. A special matinee program of 10 am showings will be available from December 9-14. See www.NarniaResources.com/matinees for details.
4. If your youth group likes to be the first to do everything, then consider attending one of a series of special showings being held around the country on Thursday, December 8, 2005. These will be held at thousands of theaters, but the tickets are sure to be among the first to sell out. These very special sneak preview tickets may be purchased at www.NarniaResources.com/barna. Minimum purchase is 50 tickets.
5. You may also create a fundraiser for your youth group by purchasing Narnia ticket vouchers you may then sell or give away as a donation. These vouchers may be purchased through www.NarniaResources.com/ticketvouchers.

FREE RESOURCES AT: WWW.NARNIARESOURCES.COM

GROUP TICKETS: 1-866-333-0045

Going to See Narnia, Continued

Children's Leaders

1. For busy families who have a lot to pack into each weekend, why not go to the movie early in the day to avoid the crowds? There will be a special Narnia matinee program available at 10 am from December 9–14. See www.NarniaResources.com/matinees for details.
2. Hold a family potluck supper and then go see Narnia as a group. If you want to go opening weekend, ensure you have tickets in advance by contacting the Disney Group Sales line at 1-866-333-0045. They will provide you with the correct contact information for a theater near you.
3. Invite your kids and their families to be among the first to see Narnia. Consider attending one in a series of special showings being held around the country on Thursday, December 8, 2005. These will be held at thousands of theaters, but the tickets are sure to be among the first to sell out. These very special sneak preview tickets may be purchased at www.NarniaResources.com/barna. Minimum purchase is 50 tickets.

Teachers

1. Enjoy an all-school outing by going to see Narnia! Let your principal know that theater buyouts may be arranged through Disney Group Sales at 1-866-333-0045. They will help you find a theater near you and work with you to secure the buyout.
2. Take your entire class as an added feature to their Narnia book study. Ensure you have enough tickets for the showing you want to attend by contacting the Disney Group Sales line at 1-866-333-0045. They will provide you with the correct contact information for a theater near you.
3. A special series of matinee showings are being set aside at 10 am each day from December 9-14 so that classes are able to attend during the school day as part of their Narnia book study. See www.NarniaResources.com/matinees for details.
4. Create a fundraiser for your school by purchasing Narnia ticket vouchers, which you may then sell or give away as a donation. These vouchers may be purchased through www.NarniaResources.com/ticketvouchers.

Parents

1. Invite your small group and their kids to join you on a family outing to see The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe. Ensure you have tickets by contacting the Disney Group Sales line at 1-866-333-0045.
2. Invite a neighbor family to attend a Narnia event at your home, school or church and then join them to go and see the film.
3. Be among the first families to see The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe by attending one of a series of special showings being held around the country on Thursday, December 8, 2005. These will be held at thousands of theaters, but the tickets are sure to be among the first to sell out. These very special sneak preview tickets may be purchased at www.NarniaResources.com/barna. Simply invite a group of families join you, as you will need to purchase a minimum of 50 tickets.

The views expressed herein do not represent those of the Walt Disney Company, Walden Media, The C.S. Lewis Estate, or the filmmakers, but are rather the views of various organizations who have created these resources specifically for leaders in the faith and family community.